AREAS OF RESEARCH

My research focuses on the dynamic interactions between artworks and the social milieu. My work investigates fields such as the politics of the human figure and public space; visibility and visual literacy; the role of public sculpture in shaping cultural and national identities; artworks as agents of power and memory within the public sphere; and commemoration practices in Cyprus.

RECENT RESEARCH PROJECTS

2025-2027	Member of the Advisory Board of the PULSE-ART Horizon programme (2024-2027).
2021- 2025	Cypriot MC Member, COST Action “Slow Memory: Transformative Practices for Times of Uneven and Accelerating Change”. Member of WG3 “Transformation of Politics” & WG6 “Training and Capacity Building”.

Subproject: Co-curation of the on-line exhibition “Imag(in)ing Slow Transformation” within the context of the COST Action “Slow Memory”, available at <https://www.slowmemory.eu/virtual-exhibition-main-menu/>

2022-2024 Participant at the Erasmus+ project “Tackling the challenges of the European Education Area by building resilient, inclusive and forward-looking training to upskill HED students face the transformations in digital culture with new e-skills, intercultural and entrepreneurial competences” (Pact4Skills), Open University of Cyprus.

2019 - Research project: “Futures of the Past”. Funded by the Open University of Cyprus.

Subproject 1: “BABELproject”: In progress. @BABELprojectOUC. The project makes part of the deliverables of the UNESCO Chair on Visual Anticipation and Futures Literacy towards Visual Literacy. More at <https://www.ouc.ac.cy/index.php/el/the-university-4/unesco-chair/projects/babelproject> and at

https://www.facebook.com/BABELprojectOUC/?modal=admin\_todo\_tour

Subproject 2: short film Trojan Women re-imagined (2022). The 17’ minutes anti-war narrative stems from Euripides’ homonymous tragedy. The narrative comments on the fallacy of assumptions; the limitations of dominant narratives; the illusive nature of ‘truth’ and power abuse.

During 2024, the film was included in the official programs of six (6) International Short Film Festivals (Madrid, New York, Rome, Tokyo, Seoul, Moldova) and was awarded with Honorable Mention for Experimental Film by the 2024 London Greek Film Festival.

In 2023, it made part of the official film program “Communities & Change”, during the International Conference of the Memory Studies Association (MSA), in Newcastle, UK. See the film at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hTRIkgzuPY> and at <https://www.ouc.ac.cy/index.php/el/the-university-4/unesco-chair/projects/trojan-women>

Subproject 3: The novel The Other Self, published by Thermaikos editions, Thessaloniki, Greece (original title in Greek, Το Άλλο Πρόσωπο) explores in a creative manner applications of Visual Anticipation and Anticipatory Assumptions in day life.

2019-2021 Participation in the research project “Using the Shame/Violence Model to Address the Root Causes of Extremism: An Interdisciplinary Residential Workshop”. Funded by the Independent Social Research Foundation. Scientific coordinator Dr. Roman Gerodimos, Professor in Global Current Affairs, Bournemouth University, UK.

2018-2020 Research project: “Cultural identities in conflict societies”. Funded by the Open University of Cyprus.

2015-2018 Research project: “Cultural memory as visual narrative in advertisements: Greece and Cyprus”. Funded by the Open University of Cyprus.

- 2011-2013 Research project: “Cyprus: land of memories, places of art”. Funded by the Open University of Cyprus. The official website of the program (English language) is: <http://publicart.ouc.ac.cy>
- The raw data is also available on the Open University of Cyprus official database (in Greek), the “Kypseli” (Hive): <http://kypseli.ouc.ac.cy/handle/11128/403>
